SEND & Barriers for Learning with Amjad Ali of TryThisTeaching

Amjad Ali (@TeachLeadAAli) is a teacher, trainer, TEDx speaker and Senior Leader. Amjad has spent his teaching career working in challenging, diverse schools. He is a qualified SENDCO and was also trained as an Advanced Skills Teacher in Teaching and Learning. Before stepping into the world of education, he spent time as Play Worker and Teaching Assistant in Young Offender Prisons. Amjad has delivered CPD on a range of topics in the UK and around the world, has worked with over 250 schools and is the proud co-founder of the charity The BAMEed Network. Learn more about Amjad here.

This webinar on Barriers to Learning explores the theme of Seeing and Meeting Need Earlier by looking at the controllable difficulties students face in lessons, reading, writing, listening and time management. The webinar will equip attendees with Low Effort, High Impact T&L strategies that are needed for some, but will benefit all. It will also enable all attendees to be signposted to tell-tale signs where students are displaying difficulties in these areas and how to intervene earlier.

Audience: SEND and inclusion leads across the north east education system, working with or in schools
